

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

The Usual Grist of Annual, Semi-Annual and Quarterly Settlements With the Various County Officers.

Board of County Commissioners met in quarterly session on Monday, as provided by law, with all members present. This being the day for the annual settlement with the County Treasurer, the Board proceeded to the Treasury, counted the funds and found the same as follows:

The Board then compared the books of the Auditor and Treasurer, and found same to agree in all respects. Board also examined vouchers and receipts, and found same correct. Frank B. Archer, Treasurer-elect, filed his official bond in the sum of $125,000, with the following sureties: Howard Kirk, Miller Booth, Geo. O. Robinson, W. J. McClain, James F. Anderson, Albert Conrow, Wm. A. Brown, Samuel Luchs, George Jennings, A. P. Tallman, John Davis, Fred Wassman, A. O. Mellott, Seneca Lytle, John Shafer, Charles Henry, Sr., Jacob Heatherton, J. T. Mercer, D. R. Humphrey, Kersey Kirk, A. B. Fisher, Owen Meehan. The Prosecuting Attorney certified same as sufficient, and the same was approved by the Board, and Mr. Archer, upon taking the oath, entered on the discharge of his duties.

Clerk Davies submitted his annual report of fines and costs collected and paid into the County Treasury for the year ending September 3, 1892, which was examined, found correct, and ordered filed. Mr. Davies also submitted report of miscellaneous fees due him, which was examined, and Auditor was authorized to issue order for $890 on account said fees.

REPUBLICAN CLUB.

Enthusiasm and Energy of Principles Based on Conviction.

A temporary re-organization of the St. Clairsville Republican Club was effected at the meeting Saturday night in Major Kennon's office. Officers were chosen as follows: President, C. W. Kennon; Secretary, C. C. Carroll; Treasurer, E. E. Cleveland. The following committee on solicitation of membership was appointed: W. S. Cowen, Thomas Davis, C. W. Carroll, Samuel Cochran, A. H. Mitchell, J. B. Longley. The enthusiasm shown at this meeting by the large number in attendance is a fitting tribute to the active work of the campaign, and an augury of Republican success. The meeting was called by the President upon the request of the Chairman of the Ohio State League. Rooms are to be secured, and the organization made at once. Let every Republican give his name to one of the soliciting committee, and enroll himself as a member. The Republican League of Clubs has heretofore been one of the most powerful factors in the success of Republican principles, and it promises this year to extend and strengthen its work. Every man in this township who believes that the election of Grover Cleveland, and the defeat of great and broad principles of protection and reciprocity would be a calamity to the nation, should at once enroll himself as a member of this Club, and do his best to avert the positive disaster of Democratic triumph.

Pursuant to a call published elsewhere in these columns, the Club will meet again at the Mayor's office, Saturday evening, at half-past 7 o'clock.

A FEW SHORT STORIES

Which You May Read, or Not, As It Suits You.

"A resident of this township," says our correspondent from Flushing, "can boast of a peculiarity which, however common in the oecumenia, is extremely rare in the human family. Annually, and about the time of year that the serpent begins to dispose itself of its extraneous covering, the nails on the four largest toes of either foot of this gentleman commence to discolor, and to disconnect themselves from the flesh, until within the course of a week they drop off, being replaced by new ones. The process is the same as that when the nail has been destroyed by a bruise, except that it is much more speedy. The only inconvenience caused is a slight tenderness in the flesh surrounding the nail for a few days prior to the time when the old nails are shed. This phenomenon has occurred for nine consecutive years, and the gentleman has begun to suspect that his phalanges have fallen into the permanent habit of annually changing their natural protectors."

Rev. J. G. Hingeley, of Minneapolis, Minn., who has been visiting here during the past week, says that politics in that great State are very much mixed. The Alliance will not cut much of a figure. The People's party has put in nomination for Governor a weak man in the person of Ignatius Donnelly, the literary and political crank. The Democrats have also put a weak man in the field, while the Republicans have for their standard bearer Knute Nelson, a brilliant young man, and the strongest possible candidate among a population composed largely of Scandinavians. In view of these circumstances it is extremely probable that the great inroads made on the Republican majority two years ago by the People's party will be largely counterbalanced.

If the dread cholera bacillus should get up out of the lower bay of New York, and make his way over the country, this place is about as good as any to be in. In 1833, when all the river towns were suffering from the epidemic, there was not a case here, except such as came in from outside places. There lie buried in the Methodist Cemetery four victims of the plague at that time. Thomas Plant, a former inn keeper here, had made preparations to move to Bridgeport. On the appearance of cholera, he declared that he was not afraid, and went on moving. His wife and children soon died, and he was compelled to bring them out here and inter them unassisted. He returned to Bridgeport, and soon died, was brought here and buried. There was much apprehension here at the time, and several cases of the disease contracted by exposure in infected places. That old song, "The Campbells are Coming," was sung to the words "The Cholera is Coming."

Drs. John Alexander and Thomas Carroll, of this place, and Dr. Flanner, of Mt. Pleasant, went to Wheeling to investigate the cholera. Dr. Flanner relied on copious draughts of brandy as a preventative. Dr. Carroll took cologne until he was thoroughly salivated. Dr. Alexander trusted to a good, healthy system. The first named took the disease and died before reaching home. The second did not take it, and attended and cared for Dr. Alexander, who did.

Church Notes.

Rev. J. G. Hingeley, of Minneapolis, delivered an eloquent sermon at the union meeting at the Presbyterian church Sunday night. His theme was the comparative worth of the light thrown on the way of life by the revelations of nature, and the revelation of the Scriptures. A large audience listened attentively and appreciatively.

Dr. Hingeley and wife got Tuesday to the Conference at Steubenville. Next Sunday will be the last that the worthy Doctor will officiate as pastor at this place, he having determined to retire from the ministry, while as yet no sign of decrepitude has appeared in his mental and physical equipment, and to spend some time in traveling throughout the Northwest. During their two years' stay here, Dr. and Mrs. Hingeley have made friends of the entire community, and regret at their departure is irrespective of church lines.

Communion services were held at the Presbyterian church Sunday. Dr. Barr, of Bellaire, preached Friday evening.

Epworth League Convention.

The Barnesville District Convention of Epworth League met in Barnesville, Thursday and Friday, September 1st and 2d. An excellent program, consisting of devotional services, music and talks, and papers upon various subjects had been arranged and was ably carried out.

The roll-call was responded to by sixteen Leagues, representing a membership of 778 and 79 associate members. There are 34 Leagues in Barnesville District, with a membership of nearly 1500.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Rev. T. W. Lane, Bellaire; First Vice President, Sadie Dent, Barnesville; Second Vice President, C. N. Webster, Quaker City; Secretary, Nellie Battelle, Bellaire; Treasurer, Della Lindsay, Antrim.

An address on "The Young Christian of To-day," by Rev. E. A. Simons, President East Ohio Conference District, was a rare treat to the delegates and their friends.

The Convention adjourned at 3 o'clock P. M. on Friday. The next Convention will be held in Quaker City, but the date has not been fixed by the Board.

Flag Presentation.

Saturday a flag was presented to the new school at Wheeling Creek Coal works by the Dr. O. U. M. and the G. A. R. of Bridgeport. There was a parade of 300 persons. Several speeches were made, and an eloquent presentation address was delivered by Hon. C. L. Weems, member of the O. U. M. at this place. Cheers and patriotic music greeted the running up of the flag.

SOME NEW CASES.

A Brief Synopsis of the New Actions At Law.

Promissory Notes Come in for the Largest Share of Attention, Although a Slander Suit Varies the Monotony.

In the following a brief synopsis of some of the new cases filed in the office of Clerk Davies, of the Court of Common Pleas, is given:
George Holing, through his attorneys, brings an action against David Branson for slander. The plaintiff alleges that at divers times and places the defendant accused plaintiff of stealing apples, pears and plums, and has made other assertions reflecting on plaintiff's reputation for honesty. To such an extent has plaintiff suffered that he asks $10,000 as a consideration for the damage sustained to his character.

An action to recover lease money is brought by Elizabeth Kennon against J. W. Beem. According to petition Beem has been in possession of a farm for seven years, for which he was to pay an annual rental of $300, no part of which has been paid. Suit is now brought to recover the $1400 due with interest.

A suit is brought by G. E. Bradfield to recover on three promissory notes of $500 each, given by J. W. Hinton, and to foreclose a mortgage on property in Barnesville.

Nancy Myers has filed her petition in an action to recover judgment on a note of $500 given by J. B. Butler. Sarah Barker says that she owned a house at Armstrong's Mills, and that she sold it to Iven Branden for $525. On this $70 was paid, and a warranty deed was given. No more being paid, plaintiff offered to refund the $70 paid if defendant would execute to her a warranty deed. To this he agreed, and pretended to do so, but plaintiff alleges that he died through fraud or a mistake he only died, and he is compelled to deliver her a good and sufficient deed, or that the Court issue an order having the same forced.

David McKelvey and others, as executors of George McKelvey, bring an action against W. H. Warren and others, to recover on three promissory notes of $400 each with interest from April 11, 1891.

Thomas J. Merritt brings an action against Elizabeth Riley and others to recover $353.25 on a promissory note.

T. J. Henderson, as executor of James Alexander, dec'd, brings an action against Francis R. Hyde, to recover $2925.

Attention!

A meeting of the Republican Club is called for Saturday evening next, at the Mayor's office, at 7:30 o'clock. Let there be a full attendance of all old members. It is especially urged that every Republican, whether a member of the Club or not, be present at this meeting. If you are not members, you should at once get into a position where effective and vigorous work can be done for the cause of Republicanism. Old members, and all others interested in Republican success this year should be present. Matters of importance are to be considered. Let no Republican forget the date and place.

Death of Israel Green.

Israel Green, who many years ago resided in this place, died at his home in Mt. Vernon on Sunday morning. He was a druggist, and stood high in the social and business community of Mt. Vernon. He was 69 years of age. He was distinguished as being the first man to publicly recommend Abraham Lincoln for the Presidency, and was an ardent Republican. He was an uncle of Probate Judge Tallman. About a year ago he attended the funeral of Mrs. Tallman, and remained here several days looking up old acquaintances.

Killed by the Cars.

Mrs. John Riley, of Bellaire, was picking up coal on a side-track in the B. & O. yards Friday, and was behind some cars when a shifter threw some other cars against them at the other end, thus moving those standing. Mrs. Riley was so near that she was caught, and sustained injuries from which she died in a few minutes.

GIVEN AWAY.

Three Valuable Presents, Worth Not Less Than $50.00.

1, A solid oak bed-room suite; 2, a set of solid oak cane-seated chairs; 3, a large handsome cane rocker.

We are requested by B. R. Johnston to announce that these three valuable gifts will be given to the three persons making the nearest guess to the number of beans in a jar, at Belmont County Fair, to be held at St. Clairsville, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, September 27, 28 and 29, 1892.

Each and every 25-cent admission ticket purchased will entitle the purchaser to admission to the Fair and to a "Guess Ticket," on which will be written the name and post-office address of the purchaser. Any number of tickets may be purchased.

The beans will be put into a glass jar, from a peck of beans, and sealed in the presence of those desiring to see it done, at 11 o'clock on Wednesday, September 28, at Floral Hall, on the Fair grounds, where these three elegant presents will be on exhibition, and where the jar will be kept for inspection, and where the "Guess Tickets" will be deposited in a locked box for that purpose, until 3 o'clock P. M., on Thursday, September 29th.

The beans will be put in the jar sealed and kept over night by some interested person who does not guess. And the beans will be counted by three like-disinterested persons. In case of a tie guess, the contest will be decided by lot.

These valuable goods are the property of B. R. Johnston, the large furniture dealer and funeral director of West Main street, St. Clairsville, Ohio, who gives them away to advertise his business and the Fair. The Board of Directors feel obliged to acknowledge Mr. Johnston's liberality in this matter.

This is a go. It costs not a cent extra to guess. Remember, you have three chances for the three valuable presents with one ticket, and as many times three chances as you like by buying a number of admission tickets. If you do not believe that these goods are worth the price above stated and well worth coming for, go and see them for yourself at Mr. Johnston's store, where they will be on exhibition from now until the date of the Fair, Sept. 27, 28, and 29, 1892.

T. C. AYES, J. B. HOGE, Secretary, President.
